

INTRODUCTION LETTER

Flexible Staffing. Specialized Expertise. Stronger Teams.

Karatin LLC provides flexible staffing and specialized workforce solutions to help government agencies, prime contractors, and commercial organizations build capable teams and address critical workforce needs.

Our staffing services are strengthened by deep expertise in data security and compliance, responsible AI, Microsoft technologies, and workforce training. This allows Karatin to provide professionals who not only fill roles, but also understand the operational, regulatory, and technology environments in which our customers work.

IT Staffing & Technical Support	Infrastructure, cloud, Microsoft 365, cybersecurity, applications, business systems, technical support, data, and project-delivery roles.
Data Security & Compliance	Data protection, classification, governance, compliance readiness, retention, access controls, and risk reduction.
Responsible AI	AI readiness, data-risk reviews, governance guardrails, secure adoption, and responsible-use practices.
Training & Enablement	Role-based training, administrator knowledge transfer, end-user enablement, workshops, documentation, and workforce development.
Project & Surge Support	Flexible talent for projects, workload surges, migrations, modernization, remediation, and short- or long-term assignments.

Karatin can support customers directly or as part of a prime-contractor team, adding specialized capacity while maintaining focus on quality, mission requirements, compliance obligations, and workforce readiness.

WHY KARATIN

Rapid Risk Response - focused support when additional expertise or capacity is needed. Learn-in-the-Flow Training - practical knowledge transfer that helps customer teams sustain solutions. Retention Guarantee - an emphasis on continuity, fit, and dependable delivery. Safety by Design - security, compliance, and responsible-use considerations incorporated into staffing and projects.

Karatin LLC is a Small Business and Woman-Owned company supporting Federal, SLED, prime-contractor, and commercial customers.

We welcome the opportunity to support your workforce needs, provide specialized professionals, or participate as a teaming and subcontracting partner.

Best Regards,
Karatin LLC
